You have stumbled into a dream Telling me pieces that I want to see

Oh sweet heavens, this sweet release Is all that I longed for throughout all these years

Say, how is your day?
How is this moment creating your shade

Do you need an umbrella or a spade Will you burn up and then dig your own grave?

Let me be the screen that filters rain Scream into a pillow and I'll take away your pain

Did you meet an angel, or a friend I could never find, so I wished to be one myself

oh why is it so slow?
I long to flow until I make it home, I'll go floating up, swallow it up let it steer, do not go back heading home; setting sun that's enough, I'm sorry son

Let me go; let me in for the stow and for the spin when the threads of our soul thin hold me tight until we win horrors lap; flowing sap maple syrup made of blood pour it out let it spill set the silver sliver still holding up, flowing in letting the sun see the sin sorry love, I'm not in better try your turn again

oh why is it so slow?

I long to flow

until I make it home

When I’m sitting in my chair alone; looking for things to make the time go

I am one of those lost souls travelling through time and goals.

And I see you and me, like we were meant to be:
always separated, we’re never gonna meet yeah

Wanted to end it all my life, but somehow

I struck gold and I am stuck now

You don’t know what you’re missing out And won’t know, unless you take that first step and let go

Let go.
Wanted to end it all my life,
but somehow

I struck gold and I am

All the things we saw
All the things we did
Never ending loop
Experience all of it

All the things we saw
All the things we did
Never ending loop
Experience all of it

All the things we saw
All the things we did
Never ending loop
Experience all of it

I’m back home
I did not sow
This pain of losing all I know

World has changed
The leaves have fallen Orchard trees now gone Earth swollen

Leave it

No I can’t believe it

Feel it

I don’t want to see it

See it

I can’t

I’d rather go blind in my mind than fight the ghost inside that hides

it hid my phantom hands
I can’t reach out instead I dance hidden

it hid my phantom hands
hidden

it hid my phantom hands
hidden

it hid my phantom hands

hidden

Flying in your dreams flying in your dreams

flying in your dreams

What did you wanna say Where did you wanna stay Where did you disappear Can’t find you far or near

Flying through dreams I see the faces of lost creatures who lost their places bringing peace trying to be better flying through dreams I lost my tether

I lost my tether
I lost everything I know
I lost my tether
I lost everything I know
I lost my soul

Flying through dreams, I see the faces of lost creatures who lost their places

bringing peace, trying to be better
flying through dreams I lost my tether

I lost my tether
I lost everything I know
I know
I know
I know
I know-ow - o - o-o-o

I lost my tether
I lost everything I know
I know
I know
I know

I lost my soul

I know-ow - o - o-o-o

I've been to town, and I didn't see nobody I am feeling down; [automatic, moving, body]

I want to drown, in the river of becoming

What is it now?
Can't you see that I am calling:

the ambulance,

doing a funky dance, beetroot dreams within my seams I'm feeling,

oh!

I think it's foul, look at me now!

Look at the way it's flowing, oh dude!

My ass is bleeding:

it's true,

my ass is bleeding, but it won't stop me from believing in you ;)

I think it's time,

smells like a dime,

and I've not been digging copper this time

My ass is bleeding:

it's true,

Just give it five!
We'll make it true!
We'll make it out this, alive
And that'll do!

Still on the fence?
Why be so tense?
When you can be like the sun that's moving through the lens of you!

What are you doing in this place?

where darkness covers my face?

Falling till I lose limbs feeling lost things

I am not “him”

Interactions are what shapes our minds.

lost in time

Everything is lost when you say “bye”.

something died in me...

Droplets or rain cup full of pain Drink up and forget that you’re not okay and say

Are you still afraid?

Curled up in the shade scared I will fade

Become a shadow of someone who’s here or there

Anyway,

enough of this talking,

just keep walking, and don’t trip.

A blue jay's head crest
Bumblebee
Decrepit carcass
Apathy
The world is mindless c'est la vie

Disordered fairness

Just like we
In the fields Sowing seeds

I can see
What we see
When it sleeps

Dreams and reality Feeling bleak

Will it end when I finally speak

A blue jay's head crest
Bumblebee
Decrepit carcass
Apathy
The world is mindless
c'est la vie

Disordered fairness
Just like me

Walk through mazes
Look at faces
Let me fade away
Then I saw you
You were faceless
I can stay

Told me you were alone

Did not mean you were done We knew that deep down inside there is so much more to come Maybe you could not see, the storm was blinding me as well But what can I say, we are all stuck together in this hell

What can I say
What do I see in this hay
One more step, one more way,

and the needle starts to sway

Take it out, take it in, and then weave the world within

Is this what it feels like... to win?

Walk through mazes

Look at faces

Let me fade away

Then I saw you

You were faceless

I can stay

Staring at it all I just want to go leave this earth and drop below oh please, bury me alone you all know that I don't want to be here so please just calm down let me make things clear it's no big deal nothing wrong with me too...

I guess I have to spell it out for you:

I just find this finite life so tiring...

so tiring

I'll finally,,,

I've finally broke through

These Final Boundaries

I have broken the spell of this mind that kept me in hell

Life itself was not that bad

I just made it out to be that

But what am I?

I'm paralyzed...

Fill the blank spaces between our friend-ships that sink deeper to the ocean floor with every wood-chip broken off the cabin floor, trying to steer with the steering wheel that is rapidly spinning, the shoreline is disappearing the deeper we go--into the abyss of this psychological war.
Peace can only be found in solitude bro.

But even that's being taken away...

[No][ti][fi]cations, virtual altercations, constant manipulation, secondary nations...

It's making people crazy, craziness connecting,
infecting,
spreading,
affecting,
making our brains lazy.

Amazing!

-technological progress that we've achieved on the backs of slaves and robotic workers.
Making our lives easier physically through comfort, but from inside rotting our psyche like never before, also--why only one side of the story is being focused on though?

I don't know bro...

I think I'd go insane.
I'd rather die outside than be stuck in a box of internal pain, make it rain, afterwards realise that you're no main-

Marrakesh;
Imperialism and crimson red;
On a leader's whim you can be no more than a spec.
No real safety in this world so why do we listen to them?

Again I don't know, but to each their own.
I could never get it all...
Maybe I should let go-

You want to be free, but you can't while I'm still here
When you look into a mirror, you can't make me disappear

I see it in your eyes; In the way you resist demise
I feel it rising in my mind Shoot the shot and shout the shout
What is it about
What is it about
You keep asking me but I cannot hear you out Scout the foun-tain Climb the moun-tain to gain knowledge of the ones that figured out them Secrets of the hallow thee That keep branching like a tree Oh my me
Oh I see

When I force you on your knees, when you feel you cannot exist, when I squeeze you like a cyst
And release the grainy mist
And then list
All the things that hurt you and that persist

You want to be free, but you can't while I'm still here, when you look into a mirror
You can't make me disappear I'm your fear
And I'm right here

What do you fear the most is the question I cannot answer but I can give a few examples of the things that make me frightened Heightened state of whatever I'm made of trampled by the tampered mindset
In the wrong time and space without intention that can be answered Internal torture I can't handle Infinite suffering with no light and nothing to soothe me Being stuck in a void that's all consuming Where time's not moving And every moment is eternal

Then you lose it
I can't do it
I'll bash my head and kill the flow Now that's something What a ruse
It makes me sick to see you go When I'm crying
Hope I'm dying
No hesitation to lose it all Yet the moment where it matters
I seem unable to let it go

I can't do it
Make me forever stop talking Rip my eyes out because not seeing is better than seeing nothing All my senses overwhelmed when there is nothing to perceive When the only stimulation is the one that I receive From imagined simulations of the one that ceased to be Fully realised and present in this shiny cosmic sea

I can't do it (((Again)))
When you force me on my knees
When I feel I cannot exist
When you squeeze me like a cyst
And release the grainy mist
And then list
All the things that hurt me and that persist

I want to be free
But I can't while I'm still here
When I look into a mirror
I can't make me disappear I'm my fear
And I'm right here

You're peeling these feelings and I am feeling it
You said that you hear me but I'm not hearing shit
Enough discussion I c-cannot deal with it Might as well Spark One Up fuck it it's time to Get Lit

You're peeling these feelings and I am feeling it
Enough discussion I c-cannot deal with it
Might as well Spark One Up fuck it it's time to Get Lit

You know I never wanted more All I needed was a place I could call home

People judge me so I stay alone

Even then I felt a presence in my soul

Could not find myself; I could not see the whole How many selves are there, which one will I become?
Does it even matter if I can't put into words
The things that lay inside me gripped by my internal hold

Beyond this World

Await

Behold!

My Way.

You're peeling these feelings and I am feeling it
Enough discussion I c-cannot deal with it
Might as well Spark One Up fuck it it's time to Get Lit

You're peeling these feelings and I am feeling it

Enough discussion I c-cannot deal with it
Might as well Spark One Up fuck it it's time to Get Lit

is this story real I find myself asking the trees why has my ocean once again split into seas you see me appear and then shift into streams that seed the disease that now seeps through the seams underneath the archway that connects me to the seal searing pain beneath the need for something to be real when my soul is soaring far away from points of light recreate the shattered feel the matter heal the blight sorrow-storm empty format story of the stoic doormat fine multi mind shift perspective of your last design right seal the night understanding that you have no sight hide anandamide we're already on the other side we're in flight while we die inside you've tried to fight the plight in spite of the fact that my hands are tied

I'm tired of trying

I've already died

Let me inside your mind, not mine

I think it's time

just say it

Found in skies above I’ve found all the answers

Beneath crystal tears recovering dancers

I know what is wrong and all it’s meanders

Trust me that I know and I will not falter

And I will wait.

until my sky turns red

all of our stars will set

And I will wait.

someday.

Turn around and seal me
Forgot how to feel sane
Wallowingly wane
welcoming the mistake

sorrowfully create
see the light in your shade shake the salt out of your pain perforate my brain

disconnect from the rain spin around in your lane dance atop what is made when you leave the remains disintegrate and rest and I'll prepare the nest without any regrets lest the world forgets what causes suns to set this life is not a test right here will be best yes.

Turn around and seal me
Wallowingly wane
welcoming the mistake

sorrowfully create
see the light in your shade
spin around in your lane
perforate my brain

reconnect with the pain find the beauty in rain feel the water flowing temporally delay going day to day not knowing what I'll say...

Hæy:)

From the roots to the tips of the leaves
It is what it wants to receive Like you
You want to believe That you're not like me

There's so much I want to say
But I've only just learnt to speak
When I'm waiting for the day
The night covers me and my beak

Hear the divine in the other
And you will grow Like the seeds we've sown
On that windowsill on our own
The will was shown Together
We made it Home

We made it home. On our own.

There's so much I want to say
But I've only just learnt to speak
And I'm waiting for the day I'll finally be taught how to sing

Kis'Víl... Tef Mí:

(I'm free...)

(In me.)

It is as it is, so it seems I was "we"
Not just "he" in the mist
I can see when I see And it is, as it is So it seems I was "we", not just "he"
In the mist
I can see, when I see, then it is as it is So it seems I was we, not just he In the mist I can see when I see

I am fading away...
Oh please will you stay!
Why am I so afraid..
Tell me what your state is You know it's okay.
Mist of tears are here

The truth is real.
And you are here!
Enigma of the hollow seer..
The monster within you is nearer... than you think; oh hold your fear!

[and then hold me] (until I see) {until I feel}

Until I'm real.

Tell me, what is real?
I have noticed fear..
I'm no longer “he”...
Now my face is clear..
I'm no longer here.
Multiplicity..
You and I make We...

and in we - we're free complete ecstasy

I want this..
What is it?..
I've been hit..

I've been hit by the feeling!
I'm no longer just dreaming!
You remembered how we win!
So let's break through that ceiling!
You know what to believe in!
You can defeat the demons!
You can fly through the seasons!
What you do is what we do!

Now you see I was with you, the entire time,
and the pleasure's mine, so let's fly together with time,
oh,

twin of mine ❦

Now I know it's true the fire's burning I no longer feel my sun I'm turning

To the moon
And soon I'll be returning It's you that made me who I am

In the mirror clouds the mist is whole All these shards of fear became my soul
What was shattered soon will become whole In the meantime my tears faintly glow

And you know full well I'm dead Between dreams my daylight set My cocoon unravelling it's thread

And then

I said what I said

I said that I love you so
And I cannot stand to see you go When you hold me all my fears dissolve

I want to dance until I evolve

Why was I dealt a faulty hand A skin of paper, eyes of sand I'm throwing shade on all my rants

But you... turn them into stars

If you want to live forever be ready to die everyday

And if you want to see your tether let go of the light of day ticking ticking ticking won't stop anytime Between the ticks forever tips over the line

And everything that was will be forevermore So what is this all for?

timelines flow forever

Waking up when I go to sleep
I die when I'm counting sheep Cannot live in a body that's high on butterflies that can't fly

Let us free
Let us see Let us be and in reverse, one two three Caterpillars that can't molt Can't live in a body that's owned Be it fear or be it hate Let go of what obscures your fate

Goodbye

I'll see you in our next life
As one

So fly
You'll never be alone
This time
Now

So undefeated
Only there if you need it divine overseer that's embedded within the process of being that never stops seeing the state of the network I'm in the network I'm in the state that I've pinned as the core of the way I begin

Every day
On my way
To nowhere

I can't stay
In one place Much longer

the world is not ending how can it?
when it has not yet begun tell me what is the name of this feeling you/I/we get when / when you start to breathe again reality stares into itself? / reality stares into itself.

You don't have to be afraid Just try to understand yourself

It doesn't have to be your best Like that heart that's beating in your chest
But it's working That's enough, see?

Shapeshifting ethos of the hell I've seen I see the vision of the way I dream I feel the pain that I reflect within hear every whisper witness every sin

Forfeit the feelings that obscure your eye See through the ceiling every single time Meet the meaning halfway to the divine By staying honest you will be fine

I know what I'm in Halfway to heaven I will become we A many meddle together in me Open your eyes and tell me what you see when the sun shines against the olive tree

I know what I see I see what I know
And when the many all become one
The world that we long for will finally be born send the message to the sand bottle up the light inside tell me which eyes broke your trust set aside the growing dust loop around and spin till dusk stow the pain inside the flask endless turns of hell's divide find us somewhere we can hide fall inside you can try there's no need to fear the sky we can't stop time but we can find the beauty in the grime fly
